

Totara Learn: Return on Investment

Totara Learn is the ideal choice for organisations wishing to obtain optimum performance and efficiency from their LMS. These examples from Totara HQ illustrate the significant savings and improvements achievable with Totara Learn.

UK hotel chain increased staff retention by 38% in year one of use, with use of Totara as a platform from which to launch brand values and to focus and streamline onboarding delivery.

International electronics brand increased course completions by 181% in the first month of use of Totara.

Healthcare provider improved compliance training rates by 50%, releasing considerable amounts of time for front line service and back office administration.

Local Authority reduced the cost of training delivery by 80% to its 5,800 users, including partners not on the corporate network, through providing a central point of online training across a large geographical area.

A professional association and trade union saved over £100,000 compared with a comparable proprietary system's license at the same time as increasing access and consolidating previously disparate systems through customisation.

Pension fund manager saved 50% in operational costs with targeted, blended learning and achieved full, 100% compliance of mandatory training for financial consultants.
